

Caring for the Kennet & Avon Canal

We're the charity working to protect and bring to life this 250-year-old network of canals and rivers spanning England and Wales. Not so long ago many canals were abandoned, and some lost forever. Today, with your support, wildlife is recovering, history is alive, boats are plentiful and spending time in this environment is contributing to our health and happiness.

Our mission is to keep this extraordinary network of canals and rivers alive, teeming with wildlife, transforming places they run through and enriching all of our lives. Your support today could help us care for Somerset's canals and many more places, for today and generations to come.

Making life better by water

Keeping history alive

Until the Kennet & Avon Canal opened, boats had to navigate a long and perilous journey along the English Channel.

As well as creating a shorter route between Bristol and London, this new canal also opened up new trade opportunities, allowing Bath stone, which was quarried nearby, to be 'exported' to Bath and Bristol to the west and London to the east.

Once the railway arrived, the canal fell into disrepair. For decades, teams of volunteers laboured to bring the waterway back to life and today it is one of the most popular canals in England.
