

Rivers and canals are great places to explore. They are full of interesting things to discover.

Bingo

Take a waterside bingo sheet with you to a canal or river.

- Can you find everything in one row? Yes, then you've got a line!
- Can you find the things in every square? Then shout 'BINGO!' You've got a full house.

Try a game of waterside bingo.
Who can get a full house first?!

Pens or crayons to cross off what you find.

A waterside bingo sheet

Your eyes and ears at the ready to find lots of interesting things

Top Tip

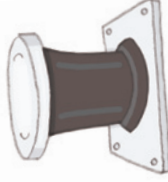

Stay alert because new discoveries can be lurking anywhere!

Don't forget to stay SAFE and Stay Away From the Edge.

Waterside Bingo

Explore the waterside together

How many things can you spot? Can you get a line or even a full house?

 Collect a feather	 Hear a duck quack QUACK QUACK!	 Find the number of a bridge or lock	 Find a leaf smaller than your finger nail
 Can you spot a mooring bollard?	 Find a Canal & River Trust logo	 Look up at the clouds and find a face	 Spot a dragonfly or interesting insect
 Find the names of two boats	 Discover an interesting fact about the river or canal FACT	 Find a warning sign - what does it mean?	 Find a warning sign - what does it mean?
 Find a long leaf	 spot one person wearing a hat	 Find the sound of rushing water	 Find the sound of rushing water

Share your adventure. Post a picture on our Facebook page Canal & River Explorers and tell us about your best discovery.

