

Waterway Trivia from the Canal & River Trust

From the Canal and River Trust

Across

- 1 Fell into Leeds & Liverpool Canal tunnel and swam the whole 1640 yards to Foulridge Wharf
- 5 To enjoy watching canal boats without participating
- 6 A bumper to stop you crashing into the lock
- 8 A 200 year-old canal that wasn't connected to the national waterway network until 2002
- 9 1770s-1830s is often referred to as the ___ age of canals
- 12 Aromatic herb that likes damp places
- 13 The bottom of the upper canal which sticks out a little beyond the lock gate
- 14 Canal boat with a large open rear deck
- 15 Are you in the wild west or in your living room?
- 17 The line on a boat's hull where it floats
- 18 This canal tunnel is more than 3 miles long
- 19 An upright wall within the hull of a boat
- 20 "I see ___ up ahead, where the riverboat sways beneath the sun"

Down

- 2 A type of canal that follows the natural shape of the land
- 3 An elusive fish that likes to live in the brickwork at canal locks
- 4 The canal with the deepest lock in the UK
- 7 Its name means 'the bridge that connects'
- 10 Furry friends first spotted in Birmingham in 2019
- 11 "To unpathed waters, undreamed ___"
- 13 ___ carp. A shy fish that prefers quiet canals
- 14 ___ cruising, for those who like to explore the waterways without mooring for long periods
- 16 The oldest canal in the UK