

Caring for the Llangollen Canal

We're the charity working to protect and bring to life this 250-year-old network of canals and rivers spanning England and Wales. Not so long ago many canals were abandoned, and some lost forever. Today, with your support, wildlife is recovering, history is alive, boats are plentiful and spending time in this environment is contributing to our health and happiness.

Our mission is to keep this extraordinary network of canals and rivers alive, teeming with wildlife, transforming places they run through and enriching all of our lives. Your support today could help us care for the Llangollen Canal and many more places, for today and generations to come.

Making life better by water

Keeping history alive

After the Ellesmere Canal Company abandoned its plans to build an arm to Whitchurch in 1800, a group of businessmen worried that Grindley Brook, 2 miles (3km) from the town, might replace Whitchurch as the general market for the area so gave the canal company the money to undertake the work.

The first stretch of the Whitchurch Arm of the Llangollen Canal (formerly the Ellesmere Canal) to Sherryman's Bridge was built in 1808. By 1811 the arm had been extended into the town itself.

Welcome to Whitchurch & Grindley Brook

A paradise for walkers.

We're the charity making life better by water

Surrounded by beautiful countryside, this area is a paradise for walkers. Grindley Brook is the starting point for four long-distance footpaths – the Maelor, Shropshire Way, South Cheshire Way and the Sandstone Trail. Enjoy strolling by the canal or visiting independent shops and cafes in Whitchurch.

5 things to do at Whitchurch & Grindley Brook

- 1 Follow the Sandstone Trail from Whitchurch to Grindley Brook.
- 2 Relax with a cup of coffee or a picnic and watch boats navigate Grindley Brook Locks.
- 3 Visit the Heritage Centre in Whitchurch and find out about the market town and area.
- 4 Chat with our friendly volunteer lock keepers, they'll tell you more about the history of this waterway.
- 5 Stroll along the towpath to New Mills Lift Bridge which lifts to let boats through.

Did you know?

Grindley Brook Locks are some of the busiest on our canals. Our volunteer lock keepers help over 6,000 boats make their way up or down the staircase each year.
