

Climate Change Resource: Part 4 Canals and Careers

canalrivertrust.org.uk/stem

Canal & River Trust Apprenticeships

Apprenticeships are available in construction, ecology, engineering and more:

- Work alongside our experienced staff
- Learn job-specific skills
- Hands-on and involved
- Earn a wage while working and studying
- Formal study time (one day a week)

Entry level jobs

Planning and Data Support Technician
Destination Assistant
Craft Operative:
Joiner / Bricklayer / Carpenter
Engineering Technician
Mechanical and Electrical Technician
Waterway Operative

Role: Look after the natural environment of canals and rivers

Which GCSEs?

Science, Geography,
Natural History

Pathways

University, Apprenticeship

Salary: £25,000 - £50,000

The Hydrology Team

Role: Look after the level of the water in canals and rivers

Which GCSEs?

Science, Geography,
Design Technology

Pathways

University, Apprenticeship,
Working towards the job

Salary: £28,000 - £45,000

Role: Look after the wildlife around canals and rivers

Which GCSEs?

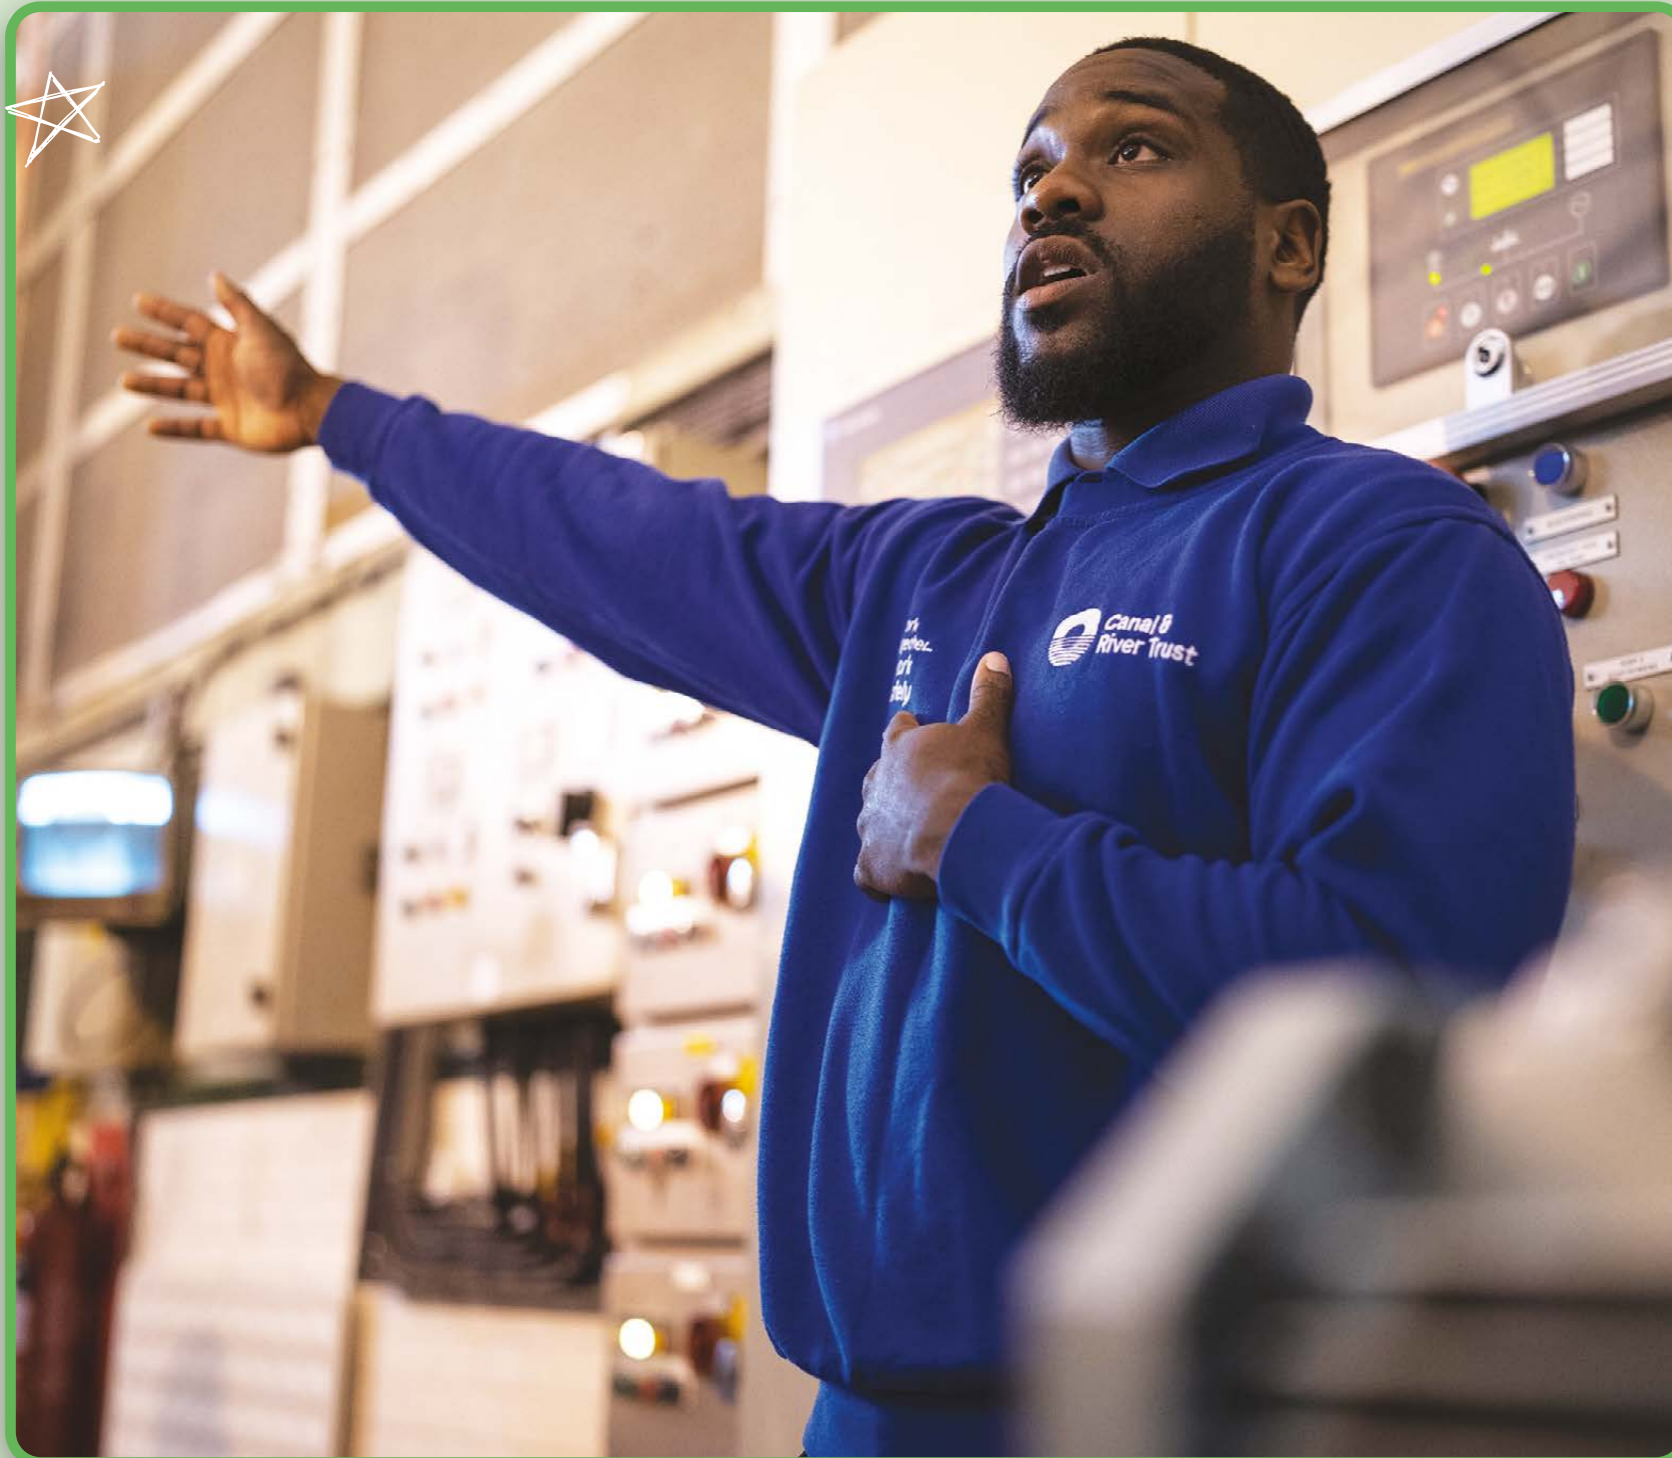

Science, Geography, Natural History

Pathways

University, Apprenticeship

Salary: £22,000 - £42,000

The Engineering Team

Role: Look after the structures and machineries

Which GCSEs?

Maths, Science, Geography, DT

Pathways

College, Apprenticeship,
University, Training while working

Salary: £20,000 - £60,000

Role: Restore and maintain historic buildings and structures

Which GCSEs?

Geography and History

Pathways

University, Apprenticeship,
Training while working

Salary: £18,500 - £48,000

Hear from a former apprentice

Click the image to hear from a Craft Operatives who began working as an apprentice