CANAL & RIVER TRUST PUBLISHES GENDER PAY GAP STATEMENT

The Canal & River Trust has published its latest Gender Pay Gap Statement. The document, available to view on the Trust's website, shows that on average women are paid 3.9% more than men at the Trust.

Richard Parry, chief executive at the Canal & River Trust, said: "The Trust is committed to gender equality across all aspects of our employment, including pay. I am pleased to present our pay information in a transparent and accessible way."

The Trust's Gender pay Gap Statement shows the gender pay gap and bonus gap at the Canal & River Trust at the "snapshot date" - i.e. 6 April 2019 (pay) and in the 12 months reference period to 6 April 2019 (bonus). The full Statement can be found at: <https://canalrivertrust.org.uk/about-us/work-for-us>.

Notes to Editors

The Canal & River Trust cares for and brings to life 2,000 miles of canals and rivers across England & Wales. We believe waterways have the power to make a difference to people's lives and that spending time by water can make us all healthier and happier. By bringing communities together to make a difference to their local waterway, we are creating places and spaces that can be used and enjoyed by everyone, every day.
