Explore Bathampton

Bathampton is a pretty village on the beautiful Kennet & Avon Canal. What better starting place for a great family day out exploring a canal!

Map not to scale: covers approx 0.5 miles/0.8km

A little bit of history

Bathampton was once a busy wharf where Bath stone quarried nearby was loaded on to canal barges. From here, it was delivered to building projects in Bath and Bristol, and as far east as London. Today, Bathampton is the perfect starting point to discover the canal and Bath stone buildings.

Best of all
it's FREE!*

Five things to do at Bathampton

- Walk down the towpath into Bath and look out for the elegant buildings built of golden Bath stone.
- Cycle up the towpath to Claverton Pumping Station, built by John Rennie to supply water to the canal.
- Discover the pretty village of Bathampton, much of it built in Bath stone.
- Picnic on the banks of the canal and watch boats pass through the peaceful countryside.
- Watch out for wildlife such as swans, coots, moorhens and ducks.
