Explore Garstang

There are no locks on the Lancaster Canal that runs through the pretty market town of Garstang. That means its flat – and a great place for family bike rides and walks.

Five things to do at Garstang

- Walk down the towpath and check out quaint bridges and the lovely stone aqueduct which takes the canal over the River Wyre.
- Relax by the basin and watch boats.
- There are no locks on the Lancaster Canal so it’s a great place to explore by canoe.
- See how many water birds you can spot and name in five minutes.
- Go shopping for world food in the Fairtrade shops.

Did you know?...

Coots have a white spot on the front of their head and moorhens have a bright red beak tipped with yellow, and a white stripe on their side.
