

Canal &
River Trust

Birmingham, hub of the canal network... Could you and you work mates lend a helping hand ?

Over 200 years of almost continuous use has taken its toll on these wonderful inner city canals. You and your team could help !

There is no saying what you could find yourselves doing on day spend with us at CRT... Painting lock gates, removing unsightly graffiti, managing unwanted plants and all the time next to someone from work that you never get to talk to.
